

MONDAY, MAY 18, 2015

Is this email not displaying correctly?
View it in your browser.

There are Two

Reminders in this Newsletter.

Prize Night Latest News

The Littlest Fox return to Maylands Yacht Club for a special evening of songs and stories. Ashlea Reale and Jenny Gaunt have brought their stories and experiences together to form The

1. Your last chance to email your acceptance to attend this Saturday night's Presentation Night.

2. Winter Sailing.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR PRESENTATION NIGHT:

Please read the notice below and send your acceptance, TODAY, including numbers who are attending to: secretary@maylandsyachtclub.or Littlest Fox. Their official web site says:

"The Littlest Fox's earthy acoustic tones and enchanting harmonies bring to life traditional Australian folk songs and their stories of urban Australia." Don't miss out - send your RSVP email off today, confirming numbers in your group who will be attending, to Alan Benn: secretary@maylandsyachtclub.org.au

WA Classical Guitar Orchestra

Sunday, June 21 at 2pm at the Club. An Afternoon of Classical Indulgence. Conducted by Jane Darcey and performed by the Classical Guitar Orchestra.

Tickets at the door - $5 (tba), with proceeds to be shared between the Orchestra and MYC.

Come along and support this event and your Club.

g.au

if attending the Presentation Night.

PRIZE

NIGHT SAT.

MAY 23rd

MYC Prize Night will be on Saturday, May 23.
Neat casual dress please.

The Prize Night will start earlier than usual, at 6:00 pm with formalities commencing at 6:30 to enable Junior and Trainees presentations to get underway, followed by Club Championship, Consistency Prizes and other Awards at approximately 7pm.

Prices are $25 for adults and $10 for kids - usual roast dinner/dessert, tea/coffee, drinks are extra, at the bar.

STOP PRESS - The Littlest Fox will now be appearing at the Prize Night, bringing their earthy acoustic tones and harmonies to Maylands Yacht Club. Please support the Club on its most important evening event of the year and help recognise our Training Group who will be awarded certificates for their season achievements.

To assist our organisers and caterers, please advise Alan Benn of your intention to attend, and how many are in your group at:

secretary@maylandsyachtclub.org.au

Don't miss out!

Winter Sailing Activities at the Club

The Club is again planning some occasional Saturday social sailing in the off-season to complement the Winter Championship series. We hope the informal social format will appeal to trainees, as well as seasoned skippers.

If you would like to be included on Les's contact list for these days, please email him at les.mack@bigpond.com.

Note that it's BYO food and drinks for Saturday sails and the Sunday Winter Series.

The Winter Series continues on Sunday June 7, starts at 1pm (please note earlier start time).

A Busy Bee - was held prior to the first Winter race on May 3rd. Thanks to all those who attended as much was achieved on the day.

Thanks also for the lunch provided Sandy!

Coming Up

Saturday, May 23: MYC Prize Night. Arrive early for a 6pm start. $25 a head at the door, children $10.

Sunday, June 7: Winter Series, Heats 3 & 4, 1pm.

Sunday, June 21: WA Classical Guitar Orchestra performs at 2pm

Sunday, July 5: Winter Series, Heats 5 & 6, 1pm.

forward to a friend

Copyright © 2013 Maylands Yacht Club, All rights reserved.
For consenting current and potential members of the Maylands Yacht Club.

Our mailing address is:

Maylands Yacht Club
(Cnr Fourth Ave East & East St)

PO Box 5

Maylands, WA 6931

Australia

MailChimp

unsubscribe from this list | update subscription preferences